TUMKUR UNIVERSITY

Tumkur University, Karnataka has been steadfastly striving to create conducive environment for teachers and students to achieve excellence in quality education & research since its inception in 2004 (established under an Act of Government of Karnataka) with the noble objective of promoting Higher Education among the rural masses. The Act empowers the University to provide fundamental and functional education through on-campus training and Outreach Programs. For this purpose, the University has envisaged its grand vision “SEVASTU ME JNANA VIJNANA DHARA”.

TUMAKURU

Tumakuru, identified as one among the emerging Smart Cities of Karnataka, is located at about 70 km north-west of Bangalore, the capital of the state. The region has rich historical heritage, and references in relation to the reign of Ramayana have been often quoted by indigenous legends. Many pre-historic sites have been discovered in the district. It is fast emerging as a premier educational and industrial hub with many technical institutions and developing-infrastructure to its credit after the announcement of SMART CITY.

MBA Department

Departments of Studies and Research in Commerce & Business Administration are committed to persistently nurture Practical knowledge and skillsets among students with specializations in Taxation, Banking & Insurance, Finance, Marketing and Human Resource Management. They have well equipped physical and academic infrastructure with research facilities and attract a large number of students. Departments boast of having alumna placed in better positions in Industry and academia.

Skill Development Center (SDC)

SDC is a major initiative by Tumkur University in order to equip skills among students to enable them for 21st century Global Market. SDC has lived up to the expectations and creating huge pool talent in the Tumkur District by providing various skills programs like sign language, personality development, soft skills.

Finance Department

Ever since Finance Department has been established in Tumkur University, It has become one of the most successful departments among all the universities in the state.
