TUMKUR UNIVERSITY

Tumkur University, established in 2004 by the Government of Karnataka, is a State University. It is recognized by the University Grants Commission under Section 2(f) of the U.G.C. Act of 1956 in 2005, and recently it has been accorded 12(8) status as also NAAC B-Grade. The University is located on the Bangalore-Honnavar national highway in the semi-urban Tumkur city.

With an ardent faith in the adage "Jnana ve Ananta" (Knowledge is Eternal), and aiming to achieve human resources development through committed and dedicated efforts, the University is ensuring an effective application of integrated and interdisciplinary approaches in its dissemination of knowledge.

The University aims at providing quality education to its students, and it offers eighteen postgraduate and doctoral research programmes. The University is striving hard to transform Tumkur region into a truly developed educational hub.

DEPARTMENT OF STUDIES AND RESEARCH IN HISTORY & ARCHAEOLOGY

The Post-Graduate Department of History was established in 1995 as part of Bangalore University PG. Centre. In 2004, it got an independent status under the Tumkur University. The Department was rechristened as Department of Studies and Research in History & Archaeology in 2006-07. Right from its inception, the department has been involved with teaching M.A courses and has also been promoting research activities through the Centre for Public History and Archaeology.

In addition to teaching, all the faculty members have been actively engaged in research and project works under various funding agencies. Participation and presentation of research papers at various National and International conferences/seminars has been a regular feature of the faculty and they also have several research papers/articles to their credit in the Regional, National as well as International journals/volumes.

About the Conference

The importance and the potentiality of the settlement analysis are well-known and have proven useful in understanding the spatial expressions of the past cultural systems. This National conference intends to probe deeper the evolution, organization, and execution of several settlement system concepts of the earlier societies, the prime factors that governed the patterning of their habitats/settlements and how their locational situation can be explained in terms of eco-facts. The intricate relationships between the ecological settings, physiography, and the societal behavioral patterns will also be investigated.

Objectives of the Conference

- ➢ To provide a platform for academics, researchers and students of History & Archaeology to deliberate upon the issues related to settlement history and systems.

- ➢ To sensitize the participants to the issues and challenges related to settlements, eco-zones, and historical environs.

- ➢ To evolve strategies and policies for the improvement of settlements in India in the background of local historical trajectories, experiences, and futuristic expectations.

Sub-themes:

- ❖ Locational aspects of settlements.
- ❖ Ecology and settlement systems.
- ❖ Resources vis-a-vis settlement systems.
- ❖ Population growth and its impact on settlements.
- ❖ Sustainable settlement systems.
- ❖ Settlement systems: Status and Trends in India.
- ❖ Rural-Urban settlement disparities.
- ❖ Settlement infrastructure in India.
- ❖ Millennium development goals and settlements.
- ❖ Creating a livable place: Public-Private partnerships.

Call for Research Paper

Theoretical, conceptual and empirical research papers, which are original and not published elsewhere are invited from academics, researchers and practitioners on the various sub-themes mentioned above or any other issues related to the main theme of the conference.
