

'SAHODAYA' - A Ten-Day Training Programme for National Youth Corps (NYC) Volunteers Conducted by the Department of Social Work

24th September to 3rd October 2011

A Ten-Day Training Programme for about 46 National Youth Corps (NYC) volunteers of Kolar and Tumkur Districts was successfully conducted by the Department of Social Work, Tumkur University, Tumkur in collaboration with Nehru Yuva Kendra, Tumkur and with the active support of the Departments of Library and Information Science, Political Science and Business Administration as part of a series of Extension Service Programmes planned by the University. The programme was conducted from 24th September 2011 to 3rd October 2011 in the District Training Institute, Siddarama Nagar, Tumkur.

Dr M. Jayaramu, Director, Departments of PG Studies, making the Presidential Remarks during the Inaugural Programme

The prime objective of the Training Programme was to provide training to the youth leaders on matters relating to Personality Development and Managerial Skills, National Constitution and Values, and Computer Skills. Eminent resource persons from Tumkur University and other reputed institutions in Karnataka conducted sessions on very relevant topics. The participants were very highly appreciative of the content, methodology and the material provided for each of the sessions.

Dr. Ramesh B., Dr Parashurama K.G., Dr. Ashok Antony D'Souza, and Dr Lokesha M.U. from the Department of Social Work, Dr. B T Sampath Kumar and Sri Rupesh Kumar from the Department of Library and Information Science, Dr. Suresha K.C., Dr. Uddagatti Venkatesha, and Sri V. Ramakrishna from the Department of Political Science, and Sri R. Shashidhar from the Department of Business Administration were the Resource Persons for the Programme on various topics such as personality development, National values, managerial skills, fundamentals of computers, Strategies of Community Organization, electronic media, life skills, participation in democratic process, Indian Constitution and Fundamental Rights and youth profile of India.

Smt. Renuka Paramesh giving the Valedictory Address

Mrs. Renuka Paramesh, Member of the Advisory Committee of Nehru Yuva Kendra, Tumkur was the Chief Guest for the Valedictory Programme. Dr. Parashurama K.G., the Chairperson of the Department of Social Work, presided over the Programme. Dr Ashok Antony D'Souza, Assistant Professor of Social Work, and Mrs. Jacinta D'Souza, District Youth Coordinator, were the Coordinators of the Ten-day Training Programme.